

CAROLINE COCCIARDI

AUTHOR SPEAKER

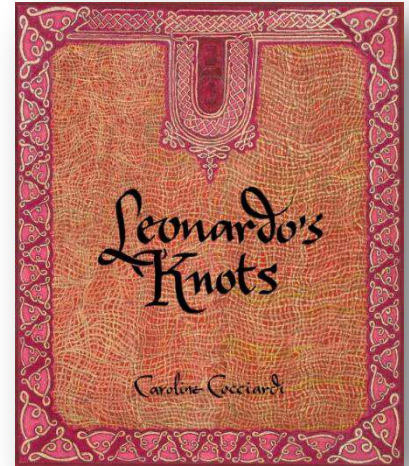

This year marks the 500th anniversary of the death of the original Renaissance Man, Leonardo da Vinci. In her new book, author Caroline Cocciardi highlights fascinating and intriguing facets of his art and work.

- No copyist duplicated the Mona Lisa Knot why?
- Who stole the "Lost Knots of Oxford"?
- Learn why Mona Lisa is really smiling
- Why was the octagon Leonardo's favorite shape?

Caroline's seminars and workshops are fun and full of interaction. Your audience will examine the intricate meshing of art and science, soul and spirit. Attendees will rediscover the power of investigative examination, and the role and impact of creativity in their everyday life.

Book your custom seminar now!

info@leonardosknots.com

“Leonardo's contemporaries considered him more mathematician than artist, and Cocciardi does a thorough job of showing why through her analysis of the mathematics of the knots he integrated into his paintings.”
Don Riccomini -Santa Clara University